

UPCOMING 1989 PRE-REUNION EVENTS

Want some winter sunshine and socialization? Join us at the Palm Springs Weekend

March 1-3. Get together with your old roomies or just hang out with new friends. The group will be solo classmates and some classmates and partners. Many restaurants require reservations for large groups so check out the schedule and register here ASAP, but no later than February 8th! Hotel rooms here.

Interested in learning more about how to heal our polarized world? Participate in a 1989-only virtual event on Feb 29th at 8pm EST (Zoom event - will not be recorded). Learn about the work of Harvard's Michèle Lamont, Professor of Sociology and African and African American Studies. Michèle researches group boundaries to understand how we can create a more inclusive world. Moderated by classmate Rhonda Powell, this private event offers us a chance to have an off-the-record conversation among ourselves. Please register here.

Check out our a growing list of pre-reunion events happening this Spring all over the country. If you want to host a gathering...there's still time!

REUNION UPDATES AND VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Reunion Housing is scarce so book your hotel room for the reunion today. The HAA will open on-campus dorm housing for $160/night per person starting in March when full registration opens.

Ted Talk/Panel on "Second Acts" is seeking 1-2 more panelists. If you have changed careers or are returning to paid work after having been out of the workforce contact Sophia van Wingerden (and even if you don't want to speak but have ideas on this topic please reach out!)

Panel: "Harvard '89 Tackles Climate Change - What You (and We) Can Do Now." The goal of this panel is to empower classmates to have an impact through their personal lives, their work and their larger community. We are looking for 4-5 panelists from law, politics, activism, sustainable investment, research/academia or medicine to discuss what we can uniquely do as Harvard grads in our professions to impact the climate change problem. If you are interested or know a classmates who might be please contact Randall Spalding-Fecher.

COMING SOON

'89 Class Survey will be launched later this week so please check your inboxes and your spam filters! Surveys will be anonymous and the survey team is working hard to educate and amuse.

Late Night Events @Reunion - We'll start selling tickets to two "late night" events at the reunion next week. Thursday Nite Jazz at 9:30 PM with Gary Negbaur '89 and the Crimson Cats at the Charles Hotel's Regattabar and Friday's Tacos and Tequila (and Churros!) at Felipe's in Harvard Square at 11 PM. These events are NOT part of the overall reunion package and will have strict capacity limits set by the venues. Buy your tickets early!
